

As part of the 2018 Phot'Aubrac Festival, the Nasbinals city hall welcomes the URBAN VOICES exhibition which features 30 prints by young Argentinians trained by Reza Visual Academy.

This exhibition is the result of photography training programs initiated by Reza in 2017 in two underprivileged neighborhoods of Buenos Aires; Fuerte Apache and Villa 21-24, benefitting 50 youth aged 13 to 20 years.
